

Dempsey Puts Over Another One-Round Knockout.

ALTHOUGH Jack Dempsey could not do anything with Roly Peley while Meachan in a four-round bout in San Francisco recently, he got back into his knockout stride a few nights later. On his way back East he was stopped off at Moana Springs, near Reno, Nev., and knocked out one Jack Moran in just seventy seconds. Meager reports of the fight say Dempsey could have ended the bout sooner if he had wanted to. Moran is no slouch as a fighter by any means. He is a husky heavy-weight and has done considerable good fighting in and around St. Louis.

Dempsey is coming East to take part in a patriotic benefit at the National League baseball park in Philadelphia on Sept. 21. His opponent is to be Battling Levinsky. Jimmy Dougherty, a money man of Pennsylvania, is promoting the show, all the receipts of which, over expenses, are to be given to the Red Cross. Incidentally, Dempsey is to get 35 per cent. for "doing his bit" and Levinsky is to receive 25 per cent. Dempsey, it is said, might have asked for more but for the friendship that exists between him and Promoter Dougherty. It seems that Dougherty was instrumental in getting Jack a job in the New England shipyards.

Corn Tassel Hangs Up New Mark at Aqueduct Beating George Smith

Latter Was Away Badly, but Showed a Very Good Performance.

By Vincent Treanor.

CORN TASSEL hung up a track record in winning the Bayview Handicap at Aqueduct yesterday. He ran the mile and a sixteenth in 1:44 1/5 in a hard drive, outlasting the favorite, George Smith, which was an added starter. The old record was 1:44 2/5, made on July 5, this season.

Corn Tassel ran a fine race in winning, but it is doubtful if he would have been home in front if George Smith had got away from the post on even terms. The Sanford horse was flat-footed when the webbing went up and the field was six lengths at least on its way before Wallis had him going after the others. He trailed the field all the way to the stretch, but then he began to run. He raced over everything but Corn Tassel easily, but his run was just a trifle late.

DUNBOYNE, the Futurity winner, is on the shelf for the balance of the season. He threw a splint in Saturday's race and his trainer, Billy Hogan, broke the bone. He was a three-year-old. Hogan was warmly congratulated yesterday on the colt's victory. Snapper Garrison, in shaking hands, asked Billy how he felt to be a trainer of a Futurity winner. Hogan indicated by his answer that he was not getting any bigger and he'll go right on smoking the same pipe.

One of these days Fairy Wand is going to have something in her favor and when she does she'll come galloping down the stretch in front of good sprinters. She ran a good race yesterday, but only landed just outside the money. Some of her backers blamed this on Starter Cassidy for taking her out of her right position—No. 6—at the post and putting her on the extreme outside. She didn't get away well from there and had to make up a lot of ground on

ATTEMPT MADE TO BAR SERVICE BOYS FROM A. A. U. MEETS

Judge Mahoney's Vigorous Protest Prevents Unpatriotic Measure From Being Passed.

By Alex. Sullivan.

THANKS to Judge Jeremiah T. Mahoney, Vice President of the New York A. A. U., an attempt to put through an unpatriotic measure at the meeting of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union last night was prevented. Walter Powe, representing the Alpha P. C. C., tried to jam through a resolution barring soldiers and sailors from competing for point trophies at all A. A. U. track and field meets in this vicinity.

Powe made the suggestion, he declared, for the purpose of protecting the smaller clubs of the district. Herman Overbush, retiring Secretary, much to the surprise of his hands, endorsed Powe's resolution, but Mahoney and other members of the New York A. A. U. so vigorously protested that the supporters of the resolution were forced to withdraw.

Another illustration of the inroads the war, with its enlistments and drafts, is making on the conduct of local athletics, was had in the report of the retiring Secretary-Treasurer. A loss of $1,042.20 was shown, which represented an actual loss of $786.13, the sum of $256.07 having been paid out during the previous fiscal year. Losses were reported on the notice board run, held in October, 1917; senior cross country championship, and junior cross country championship. Boxing, gymnastics, and wrestling showed a profit. In the clubs paying annual dues it was shown only ninety-six organizations had renewed their affiliations, a considerable falling off over the figures of the 1916-17 year.

The Registration Committee loss increased from $251.05 to $750.04, due to a falling off in the number of registrations, which fell almost 1,500 below those of the preceding year.

The six delegates to the National A. A. U. meeting were selected without a change. They are: Frederick W. Hubien, Barlow S. Wenker, Jeremiah T. Mahoney, Murray Hubert, H. Overbush, and Jacob W. Stumpff. The alternates are: Arthur McKeenan, J. P. O'Connor, George P. Mathews, Otto Wahle, Lester C. Stevens, and William J. Lee. O'Connor was substituted for M. J. Flynn, who was found not to be a delegate at the meeting.

George P. Mathews was re-elected handicapper for the local district; Charles D. Reidpath of Buffalo, was re-elected handicapper for Western New York; Otto Wahle was re-elected handicapper for men's swimming events for this district, and Miss Charlotte Epstein was re-elected handicapper for women's swimming events for this district.

Golf News

Despite the fact that there were more than forty prize winners in the Seniors' Golf Association tournament at the Apawamis Club last week, only a single contestant received more than one award. The fortunate individual was Thomas E. Kirby, who earned a log on the Boston trophy, presented to the Apawamis Club by the Massachusetts senior a number of years ago. In addition to getting his name on the Boston trophy, Kirby also won a Class D prize.

CLARE CASSELL WINS FEATURE OF TENNIS OPENING

Helene Pollak and Mrs. David C. Mills Also Capture Met Matches.

MISS CLARE CASSELL, Miss Helene Pollak and Mrs. David C. Mills were the stars of the opening rounds of the New York State championship for women on the courts of the New York Lawn Tennis Club at 238th Street and Broadway. Miss Cassell fought through a spirited three-set engagement against Mrs. Albert Humphries to win at 7-5, 6-0, 6-1. It was by far the most stirring contest of the day.

The tournament, which is being held separately as a women's championship for the first time, drew an entry of thirty-two of the leading players available.

It was the battle between Miss Cassell and Mrs. Humphries that completed the first round and it held an interested gallery. By powerfully played drives Mrs. Humphries gained a lead at 5-2 and 30-15 in the first set. By bombarding the back hand of her opponent Miss Cassell pulled up to games all. At that she wavered as Mrs. Humphries shot for the corners of the court. In the critical game Miss Cassell twice double faulted on her service and so lost the set.

Altogether Miss Cassell tallied fourteen double faults in this set. This spurred Miss Cassell to greater speed. She was dashing and aggressive. Scoring the next eleven games in succession. In the end she completely smothered her opponent in the splendidly fought rally.

Miss Pollak and Mrs. Mills each played two matches. The former, by a most surprising show of ability in making recoveries and by peppery forehands, bowled over Miss Caroma in the first round. Pollak's score of their encounter was 6-2, 6-1. Miss Winn directed her attack to the backhand of her opponent, only to have Mrs. Pollak skip around the ball for a fair shot that spoiled the strategy. In the first round Mrs. Pollak defeated Mrs. E. H. Doble of the West Side Tennis Club, 6-2, 6-0. Deep court rallies enlivened this competition.

Mrs. Mills of the Orange Lawn Tennis Club began the tourney by outplaying Mrs. Edward H. Thompson at 6-0, 4-2. She then met Miss Florence Pond, the young Jersey City champion. It was a series of driving rallies in which Mrs. Mills moved up to the net to volley and overhand the ball for the point.

Fistic News

By John Pollock and Gossip

The selection of the referee for the coming eight-round battle between Champion Benny Leonard, the world's lightweight champion, and Ted Lewis, holder of the welterweight title, which is to be fought off at Widenmeyer's Park at Newark, N. J., on next Monday night, will be made at Long Branch, N. J., to-day. Promoter Jack Curley, the officials of the Airdrome A. C. of Newark, Chairman Smith of the New Jersey Boxing Commission and the managers of the fighters will make the trip to the summer resort to watch Lewis work and also pick the official. With Jim Corbett eliminated on account of a theatrical engagement, it now looks as if either Frank "Pop" O'Brien of Philadelphia or Patsey Cline, the Newark referee, will get the job. The writer learned from a thoroughly reliable source a few days ago that O'Brien will be named to judge the contest.

Although the schedule for the fight was not placed on sale until Saturday, they have already been graded up so quickly that between $1,000 and $1,500 worth have been purchased in Newark, while Billy O'Brien has an offer of $1,000 at the Criterion Club. Over one hundred homes have so far been disposed of and Promoter Curley is of the opinion that the gate receipts will run over $30,000.

The 12-round bout between Johnny Dundee and Frankie "Cotton" McGehee, which has been scheduled several times on account of Dundee first being taken sick and again having his eye cut open and being having his eye damaged in a bout, will be fought at the Airdrome A. C. of Newark on Tuesday evening, Sept. 24. Dundee was expected to be in perfectly good shape to take them.

Jimmy Means, manager of Harry Greb, the Pittsburgh middleweight, in a letter to this office says that he expects the gate receipts to go over $10,000 when Billy Blake of St. Paul and Greb clash in their ten round bout at Forum Field in Pittsburgh on next Saturday afternoon. The referee of the bout will be from $1 to $5, and as Blake is one of the best fighters in the country it is expected that a good crowd will turn out to witness the battle.
